

Illinois Data-Driven Health & Justice Conference

---

December 9, 2016 • 9:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m.
The Forum at Carle (Pollard Auditorium)
Carle Foundation Hospital
611 W. Park St.
Urbana, IL 61801

- 9-9:30 Sign-in and Continental Breakfast
- 9:30-9:35 Welcome
L.J. Fallon, Carle Foundation Hospital
- 9:35-9:45 Introduction – How Illinois is Poised for Data-Driven Health & Justice
Gopal Khanna, Illinois Department of Innovation and Technology (DoIT)
- 9:45-10:30 Presentation – “Superutilizers”: Opportunities to Improve Outcomes & Reduce Costs
Stephen Brown, University of Illinois Hospital and Health Sciences System
John Maki, Illinois Criminal Justice Information Authority
Lynn Overmann, White House Office of Science and Technology
- 10:30-12:00 Panel – Siloes to Specialties to Data-Driven Solutions
- National perspective – Lynn Overmann, White House Office of Science and Technology
  - Data perspective – Lauren Haynes, Center for Data Science and Public Policy, University of Chicago
  - Health perspective – Stephen Brown, University of Illinois Hospital and Health Sciences System
  - Justice perspective – Michael Emery, former McLean County Sheriff
  - Trauma-informed perspective – Dr. Alicia Boccellari, Trauma Recovery Center
  - Moderator – Pam Rodriguez, TASC
- 12:00-12:30 Lunch Conversation
John Haskell, Trigr Health
- 12:30-12:45 Transition to Break-out Sessions
- 12:45-2:15 Break-out Sessions I
- 2:15-2:30 Snack Break
- 2:30-4:00 Break-out Sessions II
- 4:00-4:30 Closing and Next Steps
John Maki, Illinois Criminal Justice Information Authority

Break-out Sessions

Topic	Presenter	Room
Round 1 (1:15-2:45pm)
Data Sharing Strategies – How to Address Superutilizers within the Confines of Confidentiality	Jud DeLoss (Greensfelder, Hemker and Gale P.C.)	Physicians
Preparing for Collaborative Data-Driven Projects (featuring McLean County as example)	Lauren Haynes, Erika Salomon, Hareem Naveed (Center for Data Science and Public Policy)	Pollard
How Being Trauma-Informed Improves Responses in Intercepts 0 and 1 and Innovations Across the State (featuring Lake County as example)	Michelle Rock, Mary Gubbe Lee (Center for Excellence)	Lauhoff
Divert to What? Connecting Superutilizers with Care	Maureen McDonnell, Amanda Auerbach (TASC)	Atrium
Round 2 (3:00-4:30pm)
360 Degree View of Superutilizers	Gopal Khanna (Department of Innovation & Technology)	Physicians
Economics of Superutilizers	Betsy Benito, John Fallon (CSH)	Lauhoff
Impact of Trauma on Health Outcomes and High Risk Behaviors and the UCSF Trauma Recovery Center Model	Alicia Boccellari, PhD (UCSF Department of Psychiatry)	Auxiliary
Collaborative Work for Superutilizers – Familiar Faces Initiative in King County (Seattle), Washington	Travis Erickson, Jesse Benet (King County, WA) [via videoconference]	Pollard
Hospital Perspective and Housing First for Superutilizers	Stephen Brown (U of I Health and Hospital System)	Atrium