

Illinois Partnerships and Strategies to Reduce Violent Crime November 4-5, 2015

AGENDA

DAY 1

Time	Event	Location
7- 8:30 a.m.	Registration	Marquette Foyer
7:30-8:30 a.m.	Continental Breakfast	Marquette Foyer
8:30- 9:15 a.m.	Welcome, Introductions, and the State of Crime and Crime Control in Illinois <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Jim Ardis, Peoria Mayor, & Jim Lewis, U.S. Attorney, Central District • Megan Alderden, Ph.D., Associate Director, Research and Analysis Unit, Illinois Criminal Justice Information Authority 	Marquette A
9:15-10:30 a.m.	Don't Shoot: How Peoria Implemented Focused Deterrence to Reduce Group Gun Violence <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Jim Ardis, Peoria Mayor • Mike Eddlemon, Peoria Police Department Assistant Chief • Jerry Brady, Peoria County State's Attorney • Mike McCoy, Peoria County Sheriff • Carl Cannon, Supervisor, Peoria Park District Youth Outreach Intervention Division • Jim Lewis, U.S. Attorney, Central District • Tate Chambers, Assistant U.S. Attorney, Central District • Moderator: John Maki, Executive Director, Illinois Criminal Justice Information Authority Presenters will share how they responded to a 2011 spike in gun-related homicides by partnering with crime control experts at the National Network for Safe Communities.	Marquette A
Break
10:45 a.m. - 12 p.m.	National Context: Reducing Violent Crime from Boston, Massachusetts, to High Point, North Carolina <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • David M. Kennedy, Executive Director, National Network for Safe Communities In this presentation, Mr. Kennedy will describe the most effective strategies for reducing group violence, the essential components, and successes throughout the country.	Marquette A

12-1 p.m.	Lunch	Cotillion
1-2:15 p.m.	Effective Strategies designed to help local law enforcement and communities reduce violent crime <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • David M. Kennedy, Executive Director, National Network for Safe Communities • Kerry Chicon, Chief, Crime Strategies Unit, Manhattan District Attorney's Office • Teny Gross, Former Executive Director, Institute for the Study and Practice of Nonviolence • Mark Kleiman, Professor of Public Policy, Marron Institute for Urban Management, New York University • Moderator: Megan Alderden, Ph.D., Associate Director, Research and Analysis Unit, Illinois Criminal Justice Information Authority This panel will discuss major national strategies to address violent crime, including focused deterrence; intelligence driven prosecution; community engagement, and swift, certain and fair supervision.	Marquette A
2:15-3:30 p.m.	Nuts & Bolts: Benefits and challenges of implementing national strategies at the local level <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Jim Summey, Executive Director, High Point Community Against Violence • Chris Mallette, Executive Director, Chicago Violence Reduction Strategy • Ron DeWald, Assistant U.S. Attorney, Northern District • Jerry Mitchell, Peoria Chief of Police • Jerry Brady, Peoria County State's Attorney • Robert J. Tracy, Chief of Crime Control Strategies, Chicago Police Department • Moderator: Tate Chambers, U.S. Attorney's Office, Central District Panelists will share insights on practical implementation of the national strategies discussed.	Marquette A
Break
3:45- 4:50 p.m.	Best practices in crime gun investigations <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • David Coulson, Senior Special Agent & NIBIN Coordinator, Chicago Field Division, ATF • Jim Needles, Assistant Special Agent, Chicago Field Division, ATF • Kevin Cronin, Consultant, Cook County sheriff's Department & Police Executive Research Forum, and ATF Supervisory Special Agent (ret.) • Moderator: Nina Vinik, Gun Violence Prevention Program Director, Joyce Foundation A regional approach to gun trafficking investigations under way in the Cook County/NW Indiana area will be highlighted. In addition, panelists will provide an overview of ballistic imaging technology and the benefits of comprehensive evidence collection. Firearm tracing through the ATF eTrace system and collective data sharing also will be discussed.	Marquette A
5:30 p.m.	Networking Reception Sponsored by 	Cheminee

DAY 2

Time	Event	Location
8-8:45 a.m.	Continental Breakfast	Marquette Foyer
8:45-10:15 a.m.	How to address serious juvenile offenders/juvenile crime <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Chris Mallette, Executive Director of the Chicago Violence Reduction Strategy • Ron DeWald, Assistant U.S. Attorney, Chief, Violent Crimes Section, United States Attorney's Office for the Northern District of Illinois 	Cheminee
	How to manage gun violence that falls out of strategy <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Jim Lewis, U.S Attorney's Office, Central District • Jerry Mitchell, Peoria Chief of Police • David M. Kennedy, Executive Director, National Network for Safe Communities 	Cotillion
	How to promote collaboration through intelligence-driven prosecution <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Kerry Chicon, Chief of Crime Strategies Unit, Manhattan District Attorney's Office 	Illinois
	How to strengthen community engagement <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Krista Coleman, Service Coordinator, Peoria Police Department • Jim Summey, Executive Director, High Point Community Against Violence • Carl Cannon, Youth Outreach Supervisor, Peoria Park District • Rev. K. Edward Copeland, New Zion Baptist Church 	Peoria
	How to utilize crime gun intelligence to reduce violent crime <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Mark Kraft, Owner, Mark Kraft Firearms Consulting and Training, ATF Senior Special Agent (Ret.) 	Marquette B
	How to reduce crime and incarceration through swift, certain, and fair community correctional supervision <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Mark Kleiman, Professor of Public Policy, Marron Institute for Urban Management, New York University • John Maki, Executive Director, Illinois Criminal Justice information Authority 	LaSalle
10:30-11:45 a.m.	Jurisdiction Breakout Sessions Individual jurisdiction members will group to share reactions to the conference, begin to assess local efforts, and discuss next steps. ICJIA facilitators will discuss funding possibilities and technical assistance.	Marquette A

12-1:30 p.m.	Luncheon Keynote Legitimacy and Racial Reconciliation: Building Strong Relationships Between Law Enforcement and Community <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • David M. Kennedy, Executive Director, National Network for Safe Communities • Rev. K. Edward Copeland, New Zion Baptist Church • Chris Mallette, Executive Director, Chicago Violence Reduction Strategy • Jim Summey, Executive Director, High Point Community Against Violence • Moderator: Jim Lewis, U.S. Attorney's Office, Central District In the closing keynote, panelist share experiences and insights into strengthening the relationship and trust between law enforcement and communities of color.	Marquette A
----------------------------	---	--------------------